The sourte in no other city in he would would tolerate such comes as have been enacted in the INTE Sharen swee in San Francisco. The fair or unfair plaintiff now memes a "gran" and threatens to perferate the opposition counsel unless her rights, as she sees them' are presticed. All this is tolerated and solumn after column describing the scenes are published in the daily press. No sympathy can be expressed for Sharon, one of the vilest old reprobates that ever lived but for the sake of the good mame of the judiciary and humanity, the whole matter should be demurred out of court. Of course, in the end Sharon's million's will win and Mrs Sharon be left stranded with prive Sacremento of cheap freight, and vain hopes of her alimony.

THE Western Christian Advocate in opposing the desertion of their churches by pastors in summer time asserts that "the devil never tikes a vacation." It may be true that Satan has not enjoyed a rest for a long time, but when he hears that Mr. Cleveland has gone fishing he ma change his practice sufficently to keep in line with the leader ful fights and riots. More trouble is of his party.

IF Auditor Chenoweth continue to spread himself much longer after the fashion he has so far pursued it will be necessary to annex two or three other countries to the United States in order to provide adequate room for the exercise of his functions. He has already given notice that he proposes to overhaul the affairs of the Smithsonian Institution, a private corporation; and, as the weather grows cooler, he may conclude to assume general supervision of all our business, and project himself beyond our borders in search of still wider by two of the posse, who soon overhaulthand that he proposes to overhaulthe affairs of the Smith Rich Hill, Aug., 23.

Acting Very Cautiously St. Louis, Aug., 23.

No development in the Enights of labor trouble in the way of any demonstration occurred to-day. At the Missouri Pacific shops they say they will not handle the Wabash engines. Bill Magen an employe last night refused to bandle a Wabash and was dismissed. The master of the shop was notified that Hagen must be reinstated and paid for lost time, or a strike would ensue. Under the orders of the superintendent, Hagen was reinstated to-day and paid for his lost time. Both sides are acting very cautiously.

> Steamers Grounded. SACRAMENTO, Aug. 23.

The steamers Modoc and Apache are both grounded to-day upon the bar just below this city, the Modoc having been there all night. It is almost a certainty that navigation will be entirely suspended in a few days. Mayor Brown is to call a meeting of citizens to consider the subject of keeping open the chan mil, as the closing of the river will de interfere seriously with the bringing of State Fair exhibits.

Fire was returned and one of the gang was severely wounded. The fight became so hot that the thieves abandoned the horses and took to the woods. At this writing they have not been appreheded, although the horses were recovered.

Strange Fatality'

MARTIN'S VALLEY, Aug., 23. Mrs. S. Truby, of this place, is an aged widow. Her son John, aged 34, worked on the East Branch Railroad. Jason, another son, aged 36, was an employee in the slate quarries. Wyman a third son, 38 years old, was a miller, They lived with their mother, having no families of their own. On Friday last John, while running to turn a switch, fell into a cattle gaard and broke his neck. On Saturday morning, before the news of John's death reached home, Jason was drowned in a pit in the quarries, recent rains having filled it with water. James Whittaker The Best Meal in arrived in the village at 9 o'clock on discussed, and it was finally decided to Saturday morning with the news of abmit the state previded an organiza- John Truby's death and met Wm. Jackson, who was bearing the tidir g of Jason's fate at the same time. The two walked together to the mill where Wyman Truby to break the news to him first. There was a crowd about the mill, and as the two messengers arrived on the scene men were carrying Wyman Turby's body out of the builling. He had been sufficated in a grain bin, Less than twelve hours intervened between the death of the first brother and the last one. The news of the death of her three sons so prostrated Mrs. Truby that her life is despaired of. The three bodies will be buried in one grave.
